the teaching and learning experience, further enabling students to become enterprising and employable graduates.

Course Aims

The primary aim of the BA (Hons) Graphic Design (Graphic Illustration) programme is to educate students so that they are able to work as creative visual communicators, or to support their progression onto a postgraduate course, either straight after graduating or later in life. The course also aims to teach many transferable and employable skills that will enable students to meet the challenges of a changing world, allow them to be agile in their use of existing and emerging technology, and to encourage a professional self-awareness in order that they are more able to influence their own career decisions in line with their personal creative ambitions.

The course provides a suitable base for a wide variety of potential employment types, whether that relates to working as an employee, becoming self-employed, or working as a freelancer. The teaching of creative and analytical thinking, research skills, problem solving, communication skills, time-management and self-organisation, are all embedded within the delivery of the course. This aims to allow students to develop personal and professional attributes which can be applied to a wide range of post-course options, both within and outside of the field of graphic design.

The course aims:

- To provide a flexible, stimulating and challenging learning experience that accommodates the diverse academic and vocational backgrounds and prepares you for your future careers;
- To nurture and maintain a commitment to intellectual and personal development in order to form a basis for a lifetime of experience and learning;
- To provide an educational framework that promotes the development of broad professional Graphic Design and/or Graphic Illustration awareness and abilities, alongside the acquisition of transferable and employability skills;
- To promote the cultural and vocational relevance of the course and enable links with practitioners, professional organizations, the creative industries and the wider community in general;
- To assist and encourage students to develop a mature and self-motivated attitude in creating and producing original solutions with a diverse, explorative range of creative and critical approaches and methods;
- The course aims correlate with the defining principles stated of the QAA Benchmark Statement for Art and Design 2017, which reflect the course philosophy and the distinctive nature of your student experience on this course at University of Suffolk.

Course Learning Outcomes

The following statements define what students graduating from the BA (Hons) Graphic Design (Graphic Illustration) course will have been judged to have demonstrated in order to achieve the award. These statements, known as learning outcomes, have been formally approved as aligned with the generic qualification descriptor for level 6 awards as set out by the UK Quality Assurance Agency (QAA)⁶.

At the end of Level 4, students will be able to:

1. select, use and apply traditional and/or digital media proficiently within set assignments and tasks.
2. generate and develop ideas from initial concepts through to defined graphic design or graphic illustration outcomes in response to set briefs.
3. analyse and critique your own work and the work of others, making connections between creative processes, the use of different medias, design outcomes and the contexts they sit within.
4. demonstrate a broad understanding of the contemporary and historical contextual dimensions of Graphic Design and Illustration.

At the end of Level 5, in conjunction with previous Level Learning Outcomes, students will be able to:

1. effectively solve visual communication problems through creative practice to specific audiences, with solutions arrived at through critical analysis, conceptualisation, selection and proficient use of appropriate technology, in answer to set or negotiated project briefs.
2. understand how their own work is situated within the context of a wide range of graphic design and/or illustration career opportunities available within contemporary design practice.
3. critically question their research and show an emerging understanding of theoretical perspectives that relate to the historical, contextual and societal dimensions of graphic design or illustration as creative disciplines.

At the end of Level 6, and in conjunction with previous Level Learning Outcomes, students will be able to:

1. articulate and synthesise their knowledge and understanding, attributes and skills in effective ways in the contexts of creative practice, potential employment options or further study.
2. independently generate a diverse range of creative ideas, concepts, proposals, solutions and/or discussion points through the production of multifaceted design solutions produced to a professional standard in response to self-initiated enquiry and activity.
3. adopt a substantive critical and analytical approach to questioning independently sourced research material in relation to the practical and theoretical contexts of Graphic Design and/or Graphic Illustration, demonstrating an articulate command of design vocabulary.

completion of 240 credits including all mandatory modules at levels 4 and 5, or a CertHE Graphic Design (Graphic Illustration) on successful completion of 120 credits including all mandatory modules at level 4.

Course Delivery

The course is delivered at Ipswich. Students studying full-time on BA (Hons) Graphic Design (Graphic Illustration) are likely to have approximately 10 tutor structured learning hours per week for level 4, 10 tutor structured learning hours per week for level 5 and between 8-9 tutor structured learning hours per week for level 6. Tutor structured learning will be a mix of lectures, seminars, critiques, practical activities, tutorials and workshops. Students will be expected to engage with tutor set learning, independent learning and assessment activity that will encompass approximately 32 hours in an average week; but should be prepared for this to vary based on assignment deadlines and class exercises.

Course Assessment

A variety of assessments will be used on the course to enable students to experience and adapt to different assessment styles. The assessment methods used will be appropriate to assess each module's intended learning outcomes. Assessment on the course overall will comprise of 100% coursework (including practical assessments, essays, reports, presentations, group work, reflective learning journals and research projects).

Course Team

The academic staff delivering this course are drawn from a team that includes teaching specialists and current practitioners. All staff are qualified in their subjects with their own specialist knowledge to contribute.

Course Costs

Students undertaking BA (Hons) Graphic Design (Graphic Illustration) will be charged tuition fees as detailed below.

Student Group	Tuition Fees
Full-time UK	£9,250 per year
Part-time UK	£1,454 per 20 credit module
Full-time EU/International	£15,210 per year
Part-time EU/International	£2,535 per 20 credit module

Payment of tuition fees is due at the time of enrolment and is managed in accordance with the Tuition Fee Policy.

Students are likely to incur other costs:

- Course trips can be run 2 or 3 times every year at each level. While these are sometimes module specific, they are optional. Costs usually range from between £20-£50, depending on mode of transport and destination;
- The course sometimes runs an international trip that is optional. The cost of such trips is dependent on location, travel details, length of trip and accommodation;
- Specialist materials will need to be bought, such as papers, layout pads, inks, drawing equipment, etc. On average, costs per module should range between £50-£100, however, this may rise to between £100-£200 for practical modules late in Level 5 and at Level 6 as students need professional standard prints for their portfolios, and produce realistic dummies and prototypes of 3D design work for display purposes;

DEFINITIVE COURSE RECORD

- There is an optional Work Based Learning module in Level 5, which students negotiate to do as a replacement for another module. Students have to fund their own transport to this placement;
- There is an expectation that Level 6 students fund their Degree Show, although they often take on fundraising activities throughout the year to help with this. A final year student should budget approximately £100 for this, but often it is much less;
- It is advised students invest in a portable hard-drive to back-up all their digital work. Approximate cost £50.
